

Please keep the cap on audience size, cross-ownership and other limitations. These controls ensure local decency standards and control over programming, higher likelihood of multiple viewpoints and fewer barriers to entry in regard to media ownership. FCC is to firstly serve the public interest. Passage of the proposed changes does not do so.